BIBLIOGRAPHIC NOTES

AA.VV. Peano e i Fondamenti della Matematica, Atti del convegno, Modena 22–24 ottobre 1991, Accademia Nazionale di Scienze Letere e Arte - Modena - Mucchi, 1993; viii + 304pp. Fourteen papers on Peano and the work of his school on logic, foundations of mathematics (especially geometry), philosophy of mathematics and philosophy of science.

Elena AUSEJO and Mariano HORMIGÓN (editors), Messengers of Mathematics: European Mathematical Journals (1800–1946), Madrid, Siglo Vientiuno de España Editores, SA & Cuidad México, Siglo Vientiuno Editores, SA, 1993. Includes individual articles on the history of various international and national mathematics journals.

Joseph BRENT, Charles Sanders Peirce: A Life, Bloomington/Indianapolis, Indiana University Press, 1993. Presents Peirce as a powerfully quixotic character whose scientific genius and life were continually beset by profound psychological and physical problems.

Stanisław Łesniewski, Collected Works. 2 vols., edited by S.J. Surma, J.T. Srzednicki, D.I. Barnett, and V.F. Rickey Nijhoff International Philosophy Series Vol. 44; Dordrecht, Kluwer, 1992.