

EDITORIAL MESSAGES

By Paul D. Humke

Thanks. Particular thanks are due to our Assistant Editors, Lyle Smith of the University of Louisville, Sarah Sprague of St. Olaf College, and Joseph McDonald of Washington and Lee University for their continuing work with the Exchange.

New Author Class File. With this issue we have adopted a new raex.cls L^AT_EX classfile that will be used with every paper published in the Exchange. This classfile utilizes a format for entering author, title and other information that is particularly convenient for extracting that information for the various databases that list the Exchange. A streamlined author version of the raex.cls classfile is now available at our website (www.stolaf.edu/people/analysis).

Advertisements. Please note the advertisements at the end of each issue, which may be of interest to Real Analysis Exchange readers. Others promote Michigan State University Press publications and therefore help support the production of our journal. If you have written a book, or have an item of interest you wish to publicize in the Journal, please contact the Michigan State University Press Journals Division.

Michigan State University Press. If you are contemplating writing a textbook on a subject in mathematics, or a memoir, please consider using the Michigan State University Press as your publisher. The Press is a non-profit organization affiliated with Michigan State University that offers superior service and much lower costs than commercial publishers, along with complimentary advertising in Real Analysis Exchange.

Website. We encourage you to visit our website and invite your feedback regarding the content. The address is:

<http://www.stolaf.edu/people/analysis>