

ERRATA

(Vol. 2 No. 1 p. 36 l. 12) Gillis's claim that the function he constructed meets every non-vertical line in a perfect set is not correct. Professor Garg has noted that by considering the exposed points on the convex hull of the graph, one easily sees that no continuous function could have this property.