

THE THIRTIETH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SOCIETY

The thirtieth annual meeting of the American Mathematical Society was held at Columbia University on Thursday and Friday, December 27–28, 1923. Dormitory accommodations were furnished by Columbia University and Barnard College, and attending members were introduced at the Faculty Club. About seventy-five members attended the dinner on Thursday evening, at which Professor Coolidge spoke on the progress of the Endowment Fund. At the close of the sessions it was voted to express the thanks of the Society to Columbia University for its courtesy, continued through more than thirty years. It was voted to thank also the Governors of the Faculty Club, and the Committee on Arrangements for the meeting, which consisted of Professors T. S. Fiske (chairman), G. W. Mullins, and L. P. Siceloff, Dr. G. A. Pfeiffer, and Mr. A. E. Meder.

The attendance included the following ninety-five members of the Society:
