CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

This Society shall be called the NEW YORK MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY.

ARTICLE II.

The object of the Society shall be to encourage and maintain an active interest in mathematical science.

ARTICLE III.

The officers of the Society shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Librarian, and a Committee of Publication, which shall consist of two members, either or both of whom may at the same time hold any other office or offices.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of the Society, together with five other members, shall constitute a Council, which shall have general charge of the affairs of the Society.

ARTICLE V.

1. The officers of the Society and the other members of the Council shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of each year, a majority of the votes cast being necessary to election. Their term of service shall be one year and until their successors shall be elected.

2. Such vacancies as may at any time exist among the officers, or in the Council of the Society, shall be filled by the Council.

ARTICLE VI.

This Constitution shall not be amended unless notice of the proposed change be given in writing at a meeting of the Society, and such amendment receive the affirmative votes of four-fifths of the members present at the following meeting.
