WHEN: June 17 – 21, 2024   WHERE: Łòdż, Poland.

Talks will begin Monday morning, June 17 and conclude Friday afternoon, June 21, therefore, in order to fully attend the Symposium, plan your arrival day as Sunday, June 16 and your departure day as Saturday June 22. The main venues are Conference Center of University of Łódź, Kopcińskiego 16/18 and Faculty of Mathematics and Computer Science of University of Łódź, Banacha 22.

Five plenary lectures will be given by the distinguished mathematicians:

- Piotr Borodulin-Nadzieja, Mathematical Institute, University of Wroclaw,

- Alan Chang, Department of Mathematics, Washington University in St. Louis.

- Olena Karlova, Department of Mathematics and Informatics, Chernivtsi National University, and Department of Mathematics, Jan Kochanowski University of Kielce,

- András Máthé, Mathematics Institute, University of Warwick

- Ondrej Zindulka, Department of Mathematics, Faculty of Civil Engineering, Czech Technical University in Prague.

We expect to organize many 20-minutes talks by both junior and senior researchers, and encourage you to submit your topics during registration.

There will also be time set aside for collaborative work and, as usual, a major goal is to create an atmosphere encouraging easy exchange of ideas.
