Information for Authors

General information. The main languages of publication are English, French, German, and Russian. Contributions may also be accepted in other languages as determined by the linguistic capabilities of the editorial board and its referees (for the areas of specialization of the editors and the languages in which the editors are competent, refer to the list of editors on the inside front cover). Submit reviews to the Reviews Editor, submit all other items to the Corresponding Editor.

All contributions will be refereed. Copies of the referees' comments will be forwarded to the author along with the editor's decision.

Guidelines for submission of manuscripts. Submission by e-mail is preferred, but not required. Electronic formats are preferred. Of electronic formats, $\mathcal{AMS}$-LaTeX is preferred. The editors can accept almost any electronic format. Hardcopy is also acceptable.

U    f    b   h   m        . When references to personal letters, papers presented at meetings, and other unpublished material are used, copies should be made available to the Corresponding Editor if such material may be of help in the evaluation of the paper.

For the transliteration of the Cyrillic alphabet, we have adopted the current system in use by h m as the general rule. Exceptions are made only in the case of names which have already attained a common accepted transliteration or when the person owning the name has selected a preferred transliteration. Use the author's own transliteration for works written in French, English, German,    .

Offprints policy. In order to continue to maintain our low subscription rates, Th    f    L does not provide free offprints of papers. However all contributors, including nonsubscribers, automatically receive a clean copy of their article as well as a complimentary copy of the issue in which their work appears.

Copyright transfer agreement. Submission of a manuscript to Th    f    L constitutes an agreement that, upon acceptance for publication, the author automatically transfers the copyright in the manuscript to Th    f    L for purposes of publication.

Abstracting. Th    f    L is currently abstracted in B b    fi h   k kh Uk z    y kh,    h m    P b    ,  H    h m    ,    h m    ,    f    y   h    —    m   k ,    f    y   h    —    fiy   S    y ,    -  b    f¨    h m   k, and the MathSci online database, and has exchange agreements with    m   h   L    P    f V    , L
