Ralph Henstock, Department of Mathematics, University of Ulster, Coleraine, Co. Londonderry BT52 1SA, Northern Ireland

LIMITS UNDER THE INTEGRAL SIGN

Necessary and sufficient conditions for limit and integral to commute are discussed along with implications. Two sets of necessary and sufficient conditions are given for limit and integral to commute, when the limit is of a sequence, a generalized sequence, a differentiation, and an integration giving repeated integrals.