EDITORIAL MESSAGES

By Paul D. Humke

Assistant Editors. Assistant Editors Benjamin Bruce and Jennifer Crawford of St. Olaf College have managed the day-to-day operations of the Editorial Office and prepared papers for publication for the past four years. But this spring they graduated and both are on their way to graduate programs. We wish them all the best. We are excited to welcome Ellie Greiber and Evan Holmes, who will serve as Assistant Editors for the Exchange for the next several years. Welcome aboard Ellie and Evan!

Contributors. We extend our grateful thanks to those who contributed to one of the Real Analysis Exchange special funds during this past year. Please see the next page for details on contributing.

Author Class File. Our raex.cls LATEX classfile is used with every paper published in the Exchange. This classfile utilizes a format for entering author, title and other information that is particularly convenient for extracting that information for the various databases that list the Exchange. An author version of the raex.cls classfile is available at our website: `www.stolaf.edu/analysis`.

Advertisements. Please note the advertisements at the end of each issue. These promote real analysis or other Michigan State University Press publications and therefore help support the production of our journal. If you have written a book, or have an item of interest you wish to publicize in the Journal, please contact the Michigan State University Press Journals Division.

Michigan State University Press. If you are contemplating writing a textbook on a subject in mathematics, or a memoir, please consider using the Michigan State University Press as your publisher. The Press is a non-profit organization affiliated with Michigan State University that offers superior service and much lower costs than commercial publishers, along with complimentary advertising in Real Analysis Exchange.
