

SUT JOURNAL OF MATHEMATICS

EDITORS

Hiroki Hashiguchi	(Statistical Distribution Theory)
Emiko Ishiwata	(Numerical Analysis)
Hiroyuki Ito	(Algebraic Geometry)
Hiromichi Itou	(Partial Differential Equations, Continuum Mechanics)
Hiroshi Kaneko	(Stochastic Analysis)
Keiichi Kato	(Partial Differential Equations of Mathematical Physics)
Masanari Kida (Editor-in-Chief)	(Algebraic Number Theory)
Naoyuki Koike	(Differential Geometry, Geometric Analysis)
Keiko Kotani	(Graph Theory)
Naoko Kunugi	(Representation Theory of Finite Groups)
Kazuko Matsumoto	(Several Complex Variables)
Takuya Matsuzaki	(Natural Language Processing)
Nobuko Miyamoto	(Combinatorial Design)
Masahito Ohta	(Partial Differential Equations)
Akifumi Sako	(Gauge Theory, Field Theory, Differential Geometry)
Katsunori Sanada	(Ring Theory, Cohomology of Algebras)
Takao Satoh	(Cohomology Theory of Groups)
Hiroshi Sekigawa	(Symbolic and Algebraic Computation)
Takashi Seo	(Multivariate Analysis)
Makiko Sumi Tanaka	(Differential Geometry)
Taeko Yamazaki	(Partial Differential Equations of Hyperbolic Type)
Masahiro Yanagida	(Operator Theory)
Tomomi Yokota	(Partial Differential Equations of Parabolic Type)

SUT JOURNAL OF MATHEMATICS (TRU Mathematics for Volume 1, 1965 to Volume 24, 1988) is devoted entirely to researches in pure and applied mathematics. It is published by Tokyo University of Science (formerly Science University of Tokyo), Tokyo, Japan. The journal will be published in one volume of two issues an academic year.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS. The authors should submit the manuscript in its printed form to the Editor-in-Chief as an attached pdf file in an email with subject “submit” to `sutjmath@rs.tus.ac.jp`.

All final manuscripts accepted by the Editorial Committee through refereeing will be photo-printed, and so the manuscripts should be carefully prepared.

As a general rule, the manuscripts should be prepared by using  $\text{\LaTeX}$  macro package. The instruction for  $\text{\LaTeX}$  users is accessible from the home page of SUT Journal of Mathematics:
