Michio Suzuki

Koichiro Harada

§1. Biographical Sketch

1926, October 2. Born in Chiba, Japan.

1942, April. Entered the Third High School of Japan located at Kyoto (Noboru Ito, Katsumi Nomizu, Hidehiko Yamabe were his seniors by one year and Singo Murakami was in the same class).

1945, April. Entered the University of Tokyo. Majored in mathematics. (Gaishi Takeuchi, Nagayoshi Iwahori, Tsuneo Tamagawa were friends of this period.)

1948, April. Entered the Graduate School of Tokyo University. Suzuki's supervisor was Shokichi Iyanaga. Kenkichi Iwasawa had a profound influence on Suzuki.

1948-'51. Received a special graduate fellowship from the Government of Japan.

1951, April to '52, January. Held a lecturership at Tokyo University of Education

1952, January to '52, May. Held a graduate fellowship at University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.