

Curriculum Vitae of Piet Groeneboom

Born: September 24, 1941, The Hague
Citizenship: The Netherlands
Dissertation: Large deviations and asymptotic efficiencies
1979, Vrije Universiteit, Amsterdam.
supervisor: J. Oosterhoff.

Professional Career:

Mathematical Centre (MC)	Researcher and consultant	1973–1984
University of Washington, Seattle	Visiting assistant professor	1979–1981
University of Amsterdam	Professor of statistics	1984–1988
Delft University of Technology	Professor of statistics	1988–2006
Stanford University	Visiting professor	1990
Université Paris VI	Visiting professor	1994
University of Washington, Seattle	Visiting professor	1998, 1999, 2006
University of Washington, Seattle	Affiliate professor	1999–
Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam	Professor of statistics	2000–2006
Institut Henri Poincaré, Paris	Visiting professor	2001

Miscellanea:

Rollo Davidson prize 1985, Cambridge UK.

Fellow of the IMS and elected member of ISI.

Visitor at MSRI, Berkeley, 1983 and 1991.

Three times associate editor of The Annals of Statistics.

Invited organizer of a DMV (Deutsche Mathematiker Vereinigung) seminar in Günzburg, Germany, 1990.

Invited lecturer at the Ecole d'Eté de Probabilités de Saint-Flour, 1994.