

CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Eleventh International Summer Symposium on Real Analysis sponsored jointly by the János Bolyai Mathematical Society and the Real Analysis Exchange will be held in Esztergom, Hungary from August 10 - 14, 1987. There will be some hour addresses and some twenty minute talks each to be followed by a 5 minute discussion period. Those who will give the hour addresses include: Władysław Wilczyński, Łódz; David Preiss, Prague; Luděk Zajíček, Prague; and Alexander Kechris, Pasadena.

Unfortunately, the conference organizers have no funds to offer participants for travel or other expenses. The expected cost of accommodations and meals is about 500 forints (approximately $12.00 (US)) per day. For further information write to:

Professor Paul Humke
Department of Mathematics
St. Olaf College
Northfield MN 55057
USA

As a tribute to Professor Ralph Henstock the University of Ulster, Coleraine, Northern Ireland will hold a conference from August 9 to August 12, 1988. Further information will be forthcoming in the next issue of the Real Analysis Exchange.