STATISTICAL SCIENCE

a review journal of the institute of mathematical statistics

EXECUTIVE EDITOR: Morris H. DeGroot, Carnegie Mellon University

EDITORS: Ingram Olkin, Stanford University

Stephen Stigler, University of Chicago

James V. Zidek, University of British Columbia

Statistical Science, now in its fourth year of publication, presents the full range of contemporary statistical thought at a modest technical level accessible to the broad community of practitioners, teachers, researchers, and students in statistics, probability, and related fields. Statistical Science has been enthusiastically received by the statistical and probabilistic community.

"...a joy to read...clear and insightful."

Peter Enis, Buffalo

"...most refreshing...I enjoyed page after page."

Frederick Mosteller, Harvard

"...very attractive...extremely interesting."

Peter Armitage, Oxford

"Statistical Science is a gem."

Jonas H. Ellenberg, National Institutes of Health

"...read from cover to cover, and I enjoyed every bit..."

Robert F. Ling, Clemson

"...beautiful...an attractive and exciting product."

Judith Tanur, Stony Brook

"...a welcome draught of fresh air."

Samuel Kotz, Maryland

"...a great success."

I. Richard Savage, Yale

"...marvelous...a wonderful service!"

Michael D. Perlman, Washington

"...an enormous delight!"

Edward D. Tufte, Yale
