

BY-LAWS.

---

I.

To become a member of this Society it shall be necessary to be proposed in writing by two members, and at a subsequent meeting to be recommended by the Council and to receive a majority of the ballots of the members present.

II.

The annual dues shall be five dollars for each calendar year, or fraction thereof.

III.

Should the annual dues of any member remain unpaid beyond a reasonable time, the Council shall remove his name from the list of members, after due notice.

IV.

The regular meetings shall be held at 8 P. M. on the first Friday of each month, except July, August, and September, unless otherwise ordered by the Council. The place of meeting shall be designated by the Council. The annual meeting shall be held on such day as the Council may decide upon, between the 26th and 31st of December, inclusive

V.

Notice of the time and place of each meeting shall be sent by the Secretary to such members of the Society as may request it.

VI.

The order of business at the meetings of the Society shall be as follows:

1. Reading of the minutes.
2. Recommendations and reports.
3. Elections.
4. Miscellaneous business.
5. Presentation and discussion of papers previously announced.
6. Any other scientific communications.

VII.

No question relative to administration shall be considered at any meeting except the annual meeting, without the recommendation of the Council.

VIII.

1. The President shall convoke the Council whenever the affairs of the Society require it.
2. A request in writing from two members of the Council shall render a convocation obligatory.

IX.

1. The Society shall publish a periodical of a critical and historical nature, called the BULLETIN OF THE NEW YORK MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY.
2. The Council shall appoint annually a committee of two members, who shall have charge of the publication of the BULLETIN.
3. The committee of publication may associate with itself other members of the Society whose editorial assistance it may require.

X.

No by-law shall be enacted, amended, or suspended, except by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a meeting of the Society and upon the recommendation of the Council.
