

International Statistical

REVIEW

Revue Internationale de Statistique

Volume 71 Number 3 December 2003

Featuring a Collection of Papers on Forensic Statistics

Guest Editors: David Balding and Joseph Gastwirth

Contents	Page
Balding, D.J. and Gastwirth, J.L.: Introduction	469
Foreman, L.A., Champod, C., Evett, I.W., Lambert, J.A. and Pope, S.: Interpreting DNA evidence: a review	473
Curran, J.M.: The statistical interpretation of forensic glass evidence	497
Kaye, D.H.: Questioning a courtroom proof of the uniqueness of fingerprints	521
Izenman, A.J.: Sentencing illicit drug traffickers: how do the courts handle random sampling issues?	535
Basmann, R.L. and Slottje, D.J.: Copyright damages and statistics	557
Gastwirth, J.L., Miao, W. and Zheng, G.: Statistical issues arising in disparate impact cases and the use of the expectancy curve in assessing the validity of pre-employment tests	565

Regular Papers:

Zhang, P.: Multiple imputation: theory and method	581
Nielsen, S.F.: Proper and improper multiple imputation Discussions: Meng, X.-L. and Romero, M.; Rubin, D.B. Rejoinder: Nielsen, S.F.	593
Van der Linde, A.: Dimension reduction with linear discriminant functions based on an odds ratio parameterization	629
Annual index 71/2003	667
Acknowledgement of refereeing work	671