CURTIS COOPER AND MAHMOUD YOUSEF

Our longtime coordinating editor, Dr. Shing So, has stepped down from his position with the Missouri Journal of Mathematical Sciences. We want to thank Dr. So for his many years of tireless service to the MJMS. Under his leadership, the MJMS has grown and prospered.

We are pleased that Dr. Ted Mahavier will assume the role of Coordinating Editor on an interim basis. Dr. Mahavier comes to us with many years of service to the MJMS, including serving for many years as our Applied Mathematics Editor.

There is only one issue of the MJMS this year. We are in need of research articles for the MJMS. If you are working on or have research papers, please consider submitting them to our Coordinating Editor or our Topic Editors.

We continue our online MJMS subscription. If you have not renewed or you are a new subscriber, we appreciate your support in filling out the online subscription form at:
