Philosophical Studies

An International Journal for Philosophy in the Analytic Tradition

Editor-in-Chief

JOHN POLLOCK, Dept. of Philosophy, University of Arizona, Tucson, U.S.A.

Philosophical Studies was founded in 1950 by Herbert Feigl and Wilfrid Sellars to provide a periodical dedicated to work in analytic philosophy. The journal is devoted to the quick publication of analytical contributions, particularly (but not exclusively) in epistemology, philosophical logic, the philosophy of language, and ethics. Papers applying formal techniques to philosophical problems are particularly welcome. The principal aim is to publish articles that are models of clarity and precision in dealing with some significant philosophical issues. Articles in the journal are intelligible to philosophers whose expertise lies outside the subject matter of the article. It is intended that a diligent reader of the journal will be kept informed of the major problems and contributions of contemporary analytic philosophy.

Linguistics and Philosophy

An International Journal

Managing Editors

ROBIN COOPER, Department of Linguistics, University of Wisconsin, Madison, U.S.A.; RICHARD E. GRANDY, Department of Philosophy, Rice University, Houston, U.S.A.

Linguistics and Philosophy is a journal for studies of natural languages and will interest philosophers as well as linguists. Contributions come in the form of articles, review articles, notes, discussions, and remarks and replies. Topics which fall within the scope of the journal include:

- Traditional areas in the philosophy of language such as meaning and truth, reference, description, entailment, speech acts;
- Traditional areas of linguistics such as syntax, semantics and pragmatics (when the studies are of sufficient explicitness and generality to be of philosophical interest as well);
- Systems of logic with strong connections to natural language: modal logic, tense logic, epistemic logic, intensional logic;
- Philosophically interesting problems at the intersection of linguistics and other disciplines: language acquisition, language and perception, language as a social convention;
- Philosophical questions raised by linguistics as a science: linguistic methodology, the status of linguistic theories, the nature of linguistic universals;
- Aspects of artificial intelligence concerned with language such as computational linguistics and natural language processing.

GUIDE TO AUTHORS

The Journal encourages submission of articles in all areas of philosophical and mathematical logic; the philosophy, foundations, and history of logic and mathematics; and semantics for natural language.

Manuscripts (including notes and references) should be typed on one side of the page only, double-spaced with wide margins. Since manuscripts are refereed anonymously, we ask that the author's name and institutional affiliation be kept on a separate cover sheet. Handwritten symbols, uppercase vs lowercase letters, ambiguous symbols (l vs 1, o vs O and 0), and non-Roman characters should be identified in the margin. Notes should be indicated in the text by a superscript number and grouped at the end of the manuscript text, preceding the references. References should be listed alphabetically by the first author's last name. References should include the article title, unabbreviated Journal name, volume number, year, and page numbers. References to books should include the publisher, city, and year of publication. Three copies should be sent to Editors, P.O. Box 5, Notre Dame, Indiana 46556, U.S.A.

Page proofs are sent to authors for correction of errors that occur in composition. Any special composition costs arising from an author's revision of the text in proof will be charged to the author. Fifty reprints, without covers, will be supplied free of charge; covers or additional reprints may be purchased.

The Notre Dame Journal of Formal Logic is published quarterly by the University of Notre Dame in January, April, July, and October. Yearly subscriptions are $40.00 for institutions and $20.00 for individuals. Back volumes are $20.00 each for Volumes 1-10 and $35.00 each for Volumes 11-27. Orders (accompanied by payment in U.S. funds only) and changes of address should be sent to Michele Daugherty, Business Manager, P.O. Box 5, Notre Dame, Indiana 46556, U.S.A.
