THE OCTOBER MEETING IN CAMBRIDGE

The seven hundred twenty-seventh meeting of the American Mathematical Society was held at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts, on Saturday, October 25, 1975. There were 109 registrants including 94 members of the Society.

By invitation of the Committee to Select Hour Speakers for Eastern Sectional Meetings, there were two one-hour addresses. Professor C. H. Clemens of the University of Utah spoke on Some recent results and questions on principally polarized abelian varieties of dimension four; he was introduced by Professor T. Matsusaka. Professor Bernard Shiffman of the Johns Hopkins University and the Institute for Advanced Study spoke on Holomorphic curves in algebraic manifolds; he was introduced by Professor Richard D. Schafer.

There were six sessions for contributed ten-minute papers, chaired by Professors T. A. Cook, Robin E. Esch, Benjamin Fine, Drs. Thomas J. Langan, Andrew M. Odlyzko, and Professor Robert Sine.

There was a concurrent meeting of the Association for Women in Mathematics which was organized by Professor Stephanie F. Troyer.
