Synthese

An International Journal for Epistemology, Methodology and Philosophy of Science

Editor-in-Chief

Jaakko Hintikka, Dept. of Philosophy, Florida State University, Tallahassee, USA

Synthese publishes articles in all the fields covered by the subtitle. These include the theory of knowledge; the general methodological problems of science, such as the problems of scientific discovery and scientific inference, of induction and probability, of causation and of the role of mathematics, statistics and logic in science; the methodological and foundational problems of the different departmental sciences, in so far as they have philosophical interest; those aspects of symbolic logic and of the foundations of mathematics which are relevant to the philosophy and methodology of science; and those facets of the history and sociology of science which are important for contemporary topical pursuits. Special attention is paid to the role of mathematical, logical and linguistic methods in the general methodology of science and in the foundations of the different sciences, be they physical, biological, behavioural or social.

Philosophical Studies
An International Journal for Philosophy in the Analytic Tradition

Editor-in-Chief
Keith Lehrer, University of Arizona

Associate Editor
John Pollock, University of Arizona

Philosophical Studies was founded in 1950 by Herbert Feigl and Wilfrid Sellars to provide a periodical dedicated to work in analytic philosophy. The journal is devoted to the quick publication of analytical contributions, particularly (but not exclusively) in epistemology, philosophical logic, the philosophy of language, and ethics. Papers applying formal techniques to philosophical problems are particularly welcome. The principal aim is to publish articles that are models of clarity and precision in dealing with some significant philosophical issues. Articles in the journal are intelligible to philosophers whose expertise lies outside the subject matter of the article. It is intended that a diligent reader of the journal will be kept informed of the major problems and contributions of contemporary analytic philosophy.

GUIDE TO AUTHORS

The Journal encourages submission of articles in all areas of philosophical and mathematical logic; philosophy of language and formal semantics for natural languages; the philosophy, history, and foundations of logic and mathematics; the philosophy and semantics for natural language.

Manuscripts (including notes and references) should be typed on one side of the page only, double-spaced with wide margins. Since manuscripts are refereed anonymously, we ask that the author's name and institutional affiliation be kept on a separate cover sheet.
