WOMEN AND PHILOSOPHY

EDITOR: BRIAN ELLIS

CONSULTING EDITOR: JANNA THOMPSON

Papers are invited:

- Has male dominance in philosophy been an important factor in its history?
- Have assumptions about women, or sex differences, affected the development of philosophical theories — e.g. in ethics, political philosophy, ontology or epistemology?
- Have philosophical theories or standards of rationality been influenced by association with masculine ways of thinking or acting?
- Are women disadvantaged in philosophy? If so how? Why? What should be done about it?

Papers on more general issues concerning women will also be considered.

Papers should be in the style and format of the Journal (see any recent issue for details) and sent to the Editor, Australasian Journal of Philosophy, Department of Philosophy, La Trobe University, Bundoora, Victoria, 1983, Australia not later than 31 December 1984.

A decision will be made early in 1985 whether to proceed with the planned issue. If it is decided not to go ahead, papers submitted for this issue will automatically be considered for publication in normal issues, unless marked 'Special Issue Only'.

Handwritten symbols, ambiguous symbols (l vs 1, o vs O and 0), and non-Roman characters should be identified in the margin. Two copies should be sent to Editors, P.O. Box 5, Notre Dame, Indiana 46556, U.S.A. We regret that manuscripts cannot be returned unless postage is included.

Fifty reprints, without covers, will be supplied free of charge; covers or additional reprints may be purchased.
