NOTRE DAME JOURNAL OF FORMAL LOGIC

Guide to authors submitting articles for publication

Articles are invited for publication in the Journal which bring new results to any of the following areas: algebraic logic, classical logical systems, constructive mathematics, methodology of deductive systems, model theory, non-classical formal systems, proof theory, recursion theory, and set theory. The Journal is devoted primarily to logic and the foundations of mathematics and papers which are historical or philosophical in nature will only be considered for publication provided they employ the methods of formal logic in their exposition.

Manuscripts should be typewritten with wide margins on bond paper, using double (or triple) spacing between lines throughout (including notes and references). Particular care should be given to allow sufficient space between lines containing subscripted and superscripted symbols. Each page of the manuscript (including notes and references) should be numbered. The first page should contain the article title and author's name. The last page should contain the institutional affiliation and the exact mailing address. A concise abstract should accompany each article. Authors have full responsibility for the proper preparation of manuscripts. When the manuscript is not properly prepared it may be returned to the author for retyping; services performed by the editorial offices in this regard are properly chargeable to authors. The original copy of the manuscript should be submitted (to only one journal at a time); authors should retain one copy of everything submitted.

Footnotes should be indicated by consecutive superscript numerals and listed with wide spacing between lines at the end of the article. Footnotes may appear in print at the bottom of the appropriate pages, but should nevertheless be submitted in this form. A footnote which acknowledges a debt of the author to a foundation grant or individuals should be indicated by an asterisk.

References should be cited by consecutive numerals in square brackets and listed with wide spacing between lines at the end of the listing of footnotes.

A list of symbols used should be submitted with the manuscript. This list may be headed "Note to the Printer"; it should not define the symbols mathematically, but should identify them typographically. Authors should underline various types of symbols in different colors throughout the manuscript, blue for bold, red for Greek, green for Gothic and other characters. It is suggested that authors refer to back issues of the Journal for examples of the style of composition.

Proof sheets are generally given authors for correcting errors that occur in composition. However, any special composition costs arising out of an author's revision of text of an article in proof will be charged to the author.

Fifty offprints without covers of each article will be supplied free of charge. Additional offprints or covers for offprints may be purchased.

Editorial correspondence and articles should be sent to:
B. Sobociński, Editor, P.O. Box 28, Notre Dame, Indiana 46556, U.S.A.

The Journal is published quarterly by the University of Notre Dame. Subscriptions are $20.00 per year for institutions and $15.00 for individuals. All back volumes are available, prices supplied on request. Orders for subscriptions and back volumes (accompanied by payment), and changes of address should be sent to the Business Manager, P.O. Box 5, Notre Dame, Indiana 46556, U.S.A.

Foundations of Language

International Journal of Language and Philosophy

Board of Editors: W. Abraham, Groningen; Richard D. Brecht, Harvard; Bruce Fraser, Boston University; Morris Halle, Mit; Peter Hartmann, Konstanz; K. Kunjunni Raja, Madras; Benson Mates, University of California; J. F. Staal, University of California; Pieter A. Verburg, Groningen; John W. M. Verhaar, Jakarta.

Foundations of Language deals with language and the foundations of its study, a subject which is basic to contemporary linguistics and philosophy and which is rapidly becoming indispensable to an increasing number of other disciplines. The journal appears at a time when there is increasing awareness among scholars who deal with language that attempts should be made to exchange information relating to their respective domains of investigation. Conditions favourable to such exchange are created by this journal, which neither opposes, nor adheres to, any particular trend or movement, but endeavours to publish general or technical contributions which either deal with the foundations of language, study the impact of language on various disciplines, or render the results of research in particular areas fruitful for other fields of study.

Subscription price per volume of four issues Dfl. 120,- / US $48.00, plus Dfl. 12,50 / US $5.00 for postage and handling. Six issues will be published yearly. Personal subscription price on request.
