

EDITORIAL MESSAGES

By Paul D. Humke

Welcome. A great deal of credit and thanks is due Assistant Editors, Benjamin Bruce and Jennifer Crawford of St. Olaf College who manage the day to day operations of the Editorial Office and prepare the papers for publication.

Contributors. We extend our grateful thanks to those who contributed to one of the Real Analysis Exchange special funds during this past year. Please see the next page for details on contributing.

Author Class File. Our raex.cls L<sup>A</sup>T<sub>E</sub>X classfile is used with every paper published in the Exchange. This classfile utilizes a format for entering author, title and other information that is particularly convenient for extracting that information for the various databases that list the Exchange. An author version of the raex.cls classfile is available at our website: www.stolaf.edu/analysis.

Advertisements. Please note the advertisements at the end of each issue, which may be of interest to Exchange readers. Others promote Michigan State University Press publications and therefore help support the production of our journal. If you have written a book, or have an item of interest you wish to publicize in the Journal, please contact the Michigan State University Press Journals Division.

Michigan State University Press. If you are contemplating writing a textbook on a subject in mathematics, or a memoir, please consider using the Michigan State University Press as your publisher. The Press is a non-profit organization affiliated with Michigan State University that offers superior service and much lower costs than commercial publishers, along with complimentary advertising in Real Analysis Exchange.

Website. We encourage you to visit our website and invite your feedback regarding the content. The address is:
